Re: Revolution Wind Project Application for a License to Construct

Dear Ms. Rodvien:

Revolution Wind, LLC, a 50/50 joint venture between Orsted North America Inc. ("Orsted") and Eversource Investment LLC ("Eversource"), is pleased to submit this application for the Revolution Wind Project to the Rhode Island Energy Facility Siting Board ("Board") for a license to construct and alter major energy facilities within the State of Rhode Island, pursuant to the applicable provisions of Rhode Island General Laws §§ 42-98-1, et seq. and the EFSB Rules of Practice and Procedure, as amended ("EFSB Rules"). This filing includes:

1. The Application, including an Environmental Report with appendices; and
2. A Motion for Protective Treatment of Confidential Information requesting that certain competitive financial information and critical energy infrastructure information be excluded from the public record and maintained as confidential.

Revolution Wind, LLC., would like to thank the Board for their thorough review and consideration and respectfully requests that the Board grant a license to construct the Revolution Wind Project, pursuant to R.I.G.L. § 42 -98-1, et seq.

Respectfully,

Robin L. Main
